The Woman Who Must Have the Best Can, at Parsons-Souders, Get A $35 or $40 "System" Suit At $26.25

If She is One of the First of 25
Women Who Call for Them

Suits whose very high tailoring and exceptional fabrics bring them up to the $35 and $40 plane are not made in large numbers. Therefore it is distinctly unusual that we are able to offer at a special price

25 of the Finest Suits Made in America

Nineteen of the Suits are of standard $35 grade, and six are of standard $40 grade; all are our standard Parsons-Souders System tailoring—It is rare indeed to find them at so low a price; the fabrics are unfinished worsteds, fine diagonals and English Suitings, in black, blues and grays. In style they are semi-fitting and form fitted coats 30 inches long, winter weights, for all year round wear.

All are Perfectly Tailored, Richly
Lined in Plain Custom Made Styles

They are Suits whose value it is easy to appreciate. You have but to pick one of them up to know that the fabric as well as the tailoring is the best, equal to finest custom work. There's not all sizes, but the woman who gets one to fit her—and that's not so hard to do—gets a prize indeed. (Suit Store).

300 Pieces Muslin Underwear In the Jan'y Sale at HALF PRICE

A cleaning up of all oddments, mostly mussed from display but not hurt in any way

The question arose with us a few days ago as to whether we should continue selling Muslin wear at 20 per cent off—that is all of it, or assort out all the mussed garments caused by handling and display, get them away from the rest and offer them low enough to make an immediate clearance. This we have done, so there's chance this week of about 300 Under Muslins at HALF PRICE.

Consisting of Gowns, Drawers, Corset Covers, Long and Short Skirts and Combinations.

At 39c--300 yards 27 inch Flouncings usually sold at 75c to $1.25

Dozen patterns, in Swiss Embroidery, new 1911 designs; a brand-new shipment comes to us for this January Sale of White; of all the great offerings this lot of really choice wide flouncings at 39 cents a yard eclipses anything yet. You should see these when down town Wednesday. (White Goods Store).

Johnson anti-weapon law for carrying the revolver, which he is said to have furnished in the West End saloon and which policemen saw him take from his pocket when arrested.

Acts Like Crazy Man.
Since his incarceration in the jail, Price has been acting like a crazy man, but his actions are believed to be affected. He continually howls and raves about various things. Police Chief Harry D. Brooks prepared a number of blank slips about the size of bank checks and offered them to Price Thursday morning and the latter eagerly seized them and started to read them. Then the chief told him the checks were in his overcoat pocket and Price searched his overcoat in efforts to get them, but the supposed checks were not there. This test is believed by the chief to prove that Price is only acting crazy.

Enjoyable Evening.

A very enjoyable time at cards was indulged in last evening in the home of Miss Margaret Leyden by the members of the East End Sewing Club and their friends. The floral decorations of the rooms were white carnations and ferns. Five tables were called into requisition for progressive euchre and the prizes for having made the highest scores were captured by Miss Maud Walsh and Mr. M. Martin.

Among those who enjoyed the evening's diversion were Mrs. Anne McGuire, Miss Elizabeth Condry, Miss Margaret Mulheran, Miss Frances Gloeckner, Miss Ella Quinn, Miss Maud Walsh, Miss Ellen Burke, Miss Margaret Gill, Miss Essie Byrd, Miss Bessie Quinn, Miss Mary Moran, Miss Mary Quinn, Miss Genevieve Connell, Miss Ella Mundy, Miss Mary Mundy, Miss Sarah McDonnell, and Messrs. Charles Gill, Charles Callahan, R. E. Gill, M. Martin, Frank C. Walsh, William Mulheran, Frank Gill, Thos. Mulheran, Melville Goe, Frank Burke, and James Tierney.

Mrs. Parr Entertains.

Mrs. Anson Deering Parr entertained most delightfully the Five Table Card Club this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Upon the arrival of the guests, tea was served in the dining room and later progressive euchre was played at five tables in the large eastern parlors. At the completion of the game the club prizes and visitors' souvenirs were captured by those who had the highest scores.

Among the guests who enjoyed the afternoon's diversion were Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Miss Garrard, Mrs. Fleming Howell, Mrs. Charles Findlay, Mrs. Cecil Jarvis, Mrs. George Leatherbury, Mrs. Mord Lewis, Mrs. Edward G. Smith, Mrs. J. Carl Vance, Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Cincinnati, Miss Mary Brown, Mrs. Templeman, Mrs. Harry T. Wilson, Mrs. Ernest Hutton, Miss Amelia Vance, Miss Anna Bogges, Miss Lucy Russell Duncan, of Virginia, and Mrs. Bland Brannon.

Legion to Entertain.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will entertain its members, friends and acquaintances at a tea in the Episcopal parish house, corner of Sixth and Main streets, Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Tea and wafers will be served, and home-made candles and aprons will be on sale. It is hoped there will be a large attendance. This is a worthy cause, a much-needed work, which cannot progress as it should without the co-operation of the public. If you do not know what it is, this is a good time and place to find it out. There will be music throughout the afternoon. A silver offering will be taken, and everybody is invited, both children and adults. Go and take your friends.

Delightful Dance.

A very successful and delightful dance was given by the Moon Club last evening in the armory and quite a number of guests were in attendance. The Cadenza orchestra rendered a full and enjoyable program of music.

check was in payment of services for laying a water line.

The Waldo hotel also cashed one of these Citizens' Bank checks for $32. It was made payable to H. F. Smith and was signed with the name of R. T. Goe.

Is Identified.

Lloyd P. Souders, of the Parsons-Souders Company, and B. Brown, of the Brown clothing establishment, saw the prisoner at the jail Thursday morning and identified him as the same person who passed the bad checks on them.

M. A. Nusbaum, Third street clothing merchant, went to the jail Thursday morning and identified the prisoner as the same fellow who passed a worthless check on him for $18, signed with the name of J. W. Price, a little more than a year ago. The returned check was left with the police as evidence in the case. Mr. Nusbaum said Price was not the same fellow who recently gave him a bad check for $32.

Frank Duffy also identified the prisoner as the one who passed a bad check on him.

In addition to the charge of forgery, it is likely that Price will also be tried under provisions of the
